Interpreting the New Overtime Regulations

How will the new regulations, which went into effect on August 23rd, 2004, impact YOUR BUSINESS?

Do you know which employees are affected?

Do you know how much this will cost your company?

Would you like to hear how your company can comply with the new guidelines?

Then please attend this free seminar presented by the Northern Hudson Valley JSEC (Job Service Employer Committee). Our featured speakers are Christopher Lowe and Peter Walker from the office of Seyfarth Shaw, a law firm specializing in labor and employment law. The firm has been cited as a leader in the field of management labor and employment law.

Bring your questions, or just absorb the information/advice. A special Employer Only forum will enable attendees to network and exchange information about this and other topics of interest to your fellow employers. Free continental breakfast is provided by the NHV JSEC (Job Service Employer Committee).
